

YMCA Northumberland seeks two Board of Directors.

In many areas of our organization, including leadership, the YMCA relies on volunteers. To that end, we are currently seeking volunteer leaders to become members of our Board of Directors for the 2024-2027 term.

The affairs of YMCA Northumberland are governed by the Board of Directors, consisting of 13 people. Members of the Board of Directors include a diverse mix of backgrounds, skills, and experiences appropriate to guide the Board's strategy and proper governance of the YMCA.

The Y is inclusive and believes in the unique difference each Board Member brings to the table. At the leadership level, among our staff and volunteers, and across our program environments, we aim to create spaces and opportunities for diverse perspectives to benefit participants, donors, and the community at large. As such, our recruitment will be aimed at:

- Increasing female representation on our board.
- Increasing racialized group representation on our board.
- Increasing young adult representation (age 18-34) on our board.

General Selection Criteria

We are seeking individuals with the following abilities and areas of expertise:

- Demonstrated independence, sound business judgement and leadership skills;
- Reputation for integrity and honesty, the ability to generate public confidence and maintain the confidence of YMCA Northumberland stakeholders;
- Effective communication skills;
- Possess developed relationships with business, community, and government leaders;
- Be financially literate or have the potential to become financially literate to a level appropriate for reading and interpreting financial statements;
- Previous Board experience an asset;
- An understanding of business and not for profit organizations;
- Prepared to commit to the Y through time, talent, and treasure;
- Work effectively with others and manage conflict constructively;
- Availability to fulfill the responsibilities of a Member of the Board of Directors.
